

Alaska Stat. §18.66.140 (2011) - Filing and enforcement of protective orders issued in other states

(a) A certified copy of an unexpired protective order issued in another jurisdiction may be filed with the clerk of court in any judicial district in this state.

(b) A protective order filed in accordance with (a) of this section has the same effect and must be enforced in the same manner as a protective order issued by a court of this state.

(c) When a protective order is filed with the court under this section, the court shall have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement agency for entry into the central registry of protective orders under AS 18.65.540.

Alaska is a partial Public Law 280 state. Except for criminal jurisdiction on the Annette Islands, the Metlakatla Alaskan Native community may exercise jurisdiction over offenses committed by Indians in the same manner in which such jurisdiction may be exercised by Indian tribes in Indian country over which state jurisdiction has not been extended. In all other cases, Public Law 280 confers criminal jurisdiction to the State of Alaska.
